An Interview That Major 2. I. Lerieration,

16 Years of Lige.

Ecuared by the Great Dantains of tie Divi Wati

A GAZETTE representative had the p casure of an interview w to Yr. R. E. Eendershot, known as "the crummer boy of the Rapahannock," one cay last week. Mr. Eendershot is a most interesting character, and a hough a young man, has had a more thrilling and interesting history than falls to the lot of many. He is a veteran of the most terrio e civil war that was ever waged on earth, and toat when yet a child.

At the age of ten years he was en isted in the Ninta Michigan infantry as a crummer boy. He served with that regiment in Kentucky and Tennessee curing the years 1861-'62, until July 18th, 862, when he was captured at Murfreesporo, Cenn., by Morgan and, Forest, the rebe cava ry generals.

I e was then paroled and discharged rom the 9th Michigan. Ee then reen ister in the 8th Michigan infantry and served on the Rappahannock until the close of the war.

At Fredericksburg, when only 13 years o'c. le took the first prisoner that was captured. It happened in this way. He was quartered in a zonse on the outside o' the city, and one evening ne espice a con ecerate, who proved to be an officer, looking through a crack in the fence. The youngster seized a musket and presenting it forced Mr. Confederate to wa'k in front of him to where his officer was. It pleased the officer so much that he cetal ec two so ciers to maren begind them to prevent the prisoner's turning on iim, and in that order sent them over to the lady louse where Gen. A. E. Burnsice was cuartered. As they bassed over a it to bridge into the town, in full view of the army, the sociers sent up a mighty should for "the drammer boy of the Rabparannock." When the party reached Genera Burnsine, he dominimented the G. Wells & Co.'s curiosity store on Tejon. young so dier in these words, "My boy, street a very interesting relic.
